A JOURNEY THROUGH THREE DECADES OF LYNCH-BAGES

1995

The nobility of time and terroir

An early and sun-blessed vintage, shaped by an exceptionally hot and dry summer. Today, the wine shows remarkable maturity. Firm tannins lend structure and character. A true classic at its peak.

2005

The poised power of a radiant vintage

A warm, dry year marked by even ripening and beneficial water stress. A structured wine, both generous and refined — already showing sublime balance and depth.

2015

The elegance and freshness of a great year

A beautifully balanced and mature vintage where opulence meets finesse. Vibrant and aromatic, it combines freshness, purity, and precision — a wine of radiant expression and promising longevity.
